About Santa Fe Catholic High School

Over half a century ago, Santa Fe Catholic High School became Polk County's first and only Catholic high school. Though Santa Fe Catholic High School is a Catholic educational institution, families of all faiths find the school has not only an outstanding academic program, but also a very solid foundation of religious education and values. Santa Fe Catholic students consistently score higher than the Florida average in standardized tests, and 100% of our graduates are accepted into college or the military.

All proceeds from the 14th Annual Hawks' Scramble benefit the students of Santa Fe Catholic High School
