

Name _____ Grade Level _____

I Will Always Write Back* Summer Reading Guide: Due in your English class on Wednesday, August 9

Write a six to eight sentence summary of each person’s experiences in each section of the book. Your summary should focus on the most important aspects of the selection, not the supporting details. Also, choose 4 key quotations from each person in each section to support your point. As you read, note things Caitlin and Martin assume and learn about each other’s cultures in the section provided.

Part 1: Hallo!
	Summary	Key Quotations and Page #s
Caitlin: September 1997 - August 1998
	Summary	Key Quotations and Page #s
Martin: October 1997 - October 1998
Notes on cultural assumptions, misconceptions, and lessons learned

Part 2: Clues

Summary

Key Quotations and Page #s

Caitlin: December 1998-June 1999

Summary

Key Quotations and Page #s

Martin: January 1999-May 1999

Notes on cultural assumptions, misconceptions, and lessons learned

Part 3: Generosity

Summary

Key Quotations and Page #s

Caitlin: October 1999-December 2000

Summary

Key Quotations and Page #s

Martin: June 1999-November 2000

Notes on cultural assumptions, misconceptions, and lessons learned

Part 4: A Future

Summary

Key Quotations and Page #s

Caitlin: March 2001-April 2001

Summary

Key Quotations and Page #s

Martin: January 2001-April 2001

Notes on cultural assumptions, misconceptions, and lessons learned

Part 5: A Changing World

Summary

Key Quotations and Page #s

Caitlin: September 2001-November 2002

Summary

Key Quotations and Page #s

Martin: September 2001-December 2002

Notes on cultural assumptions, misconceptions, and lessons learned

Part 6: American Dream

Summary

Key Quotations and Page #s

Caitlin: January 2003-August 15, 2003

Summary

Key Quotations and Page #s

Martin: January 2003-August 15, 2003

Notes on cultural assumptions, misconceptions, and lessons learned

Epilogue
Summary	Key Quotations and Page #s
Caitlin: December 2015
Summary	Key Quotations and Page #s
Martin: March 5, 2008	