Volunteers Needed- Summer 2013

The Central Florida Autism Institute, a non-profit organization, is looking for mature, responsible high school and college students to volunteer for our summer camps for children with Autism. Volunteers will be assigned 1 or 2 campers to assist as buddies/peer mentors under direct supervision of trained staff. Volunteers need to commit to an entire week of camp to be considered.

You can earn at least 40 hours of community service in 2 weeks!

Please contact Kristi Julian or Terry Millican at 863-816-5886 for more information.
